1. Wireshark software is successfully opened and used to capture network packets.
2. The captured packets are displayed with details such as Time, Source, Destination, Protocol, Length, and Info.
3. By selecting a packet, its detailed information is displayed in the Packet Details and Packet Bytes panes.
4. Capture filters and Display filters are used to filter packets according to specific requirements.
5. The Analyze and Statistics menus are used to analyze network traffic and view network statistics.
6. The captured packets can be saved in .pcap format for future analysis.